Nassau County Office of
Emergency Management
Nassau County
Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard
Mitigation Plan

Coastal erosion, wave action, flooding, and high winds are some of the natural hazards Nassau County municipalities have evaluated for the Nassau County Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan. A meeting to present an overview of the plan development process and a summary of the Draft Plan will be held on August 15, 2006 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Levittown Hall, 201 Levittown Parkway, Hicksville, New York. The plan recommends hazard mitigation actions for implementation to reduce the impact that future natural disasters will have on people and property. The Draft Plan is currently under review by the New York State Office of Emergency Management and the Federal Emergency Management Agency. Upon approval by FEMA, it will be adopted by the County and each jurisdiction that participated in the process. Copies of the Draft can be viewed on the Nassau County web site at <http://www.nassaucountyny.gov/agencies/OEM/hazmit/hazmitDP.html>. Hard copies are available for review at the following document repositories: Farmingdale Public Library, Glen Cove Public Library, Hicksville Public Library, Levittown Public Library, Long Beach Public Library (3 branches), Mineola Memorial Library, and Great Neck Public Library. For questions or comments, please call Terence Winters, Nassau County Office of Emergency Management, at 516-573-0636.
